

Southern Sayings

Arthur Jackson is a patient in the Hardisty hospital. Everybody wishes him speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill and family motored to Edmonton to attend the graduation of Miss Almina Hill.

The dance at Strawberry Plains was well attended.

Mr. Albert Firkus went home to Jarow to see his parents and renew old acquaintances, as he has been marooned on his farm, south of Irma.

Mr. F. C. Wiese was down to spend a day with friends in Irma.

HIGH SCHOOL DANCE

Wednesday, April 21st, Keifer's hall was the centre of activity in Irma. The hall, decorated in the school colours—red, white and blue, was filled to the door with guests from the Viking, Hardisty and Wainwright high schools and the Irma Public school.

Dancing began about 9 p.m. to music supplied by Carl Soneff and his orchestra. After dancing about two and a half hours the girls served the hungry dancers a delicious lunch. Pop and chocolate bars were sold in the hall.

After lunch was cleared away, dancing was resumed until 1:30 a.m. This was Irma's first high school dance to which we invited other schools. It proved to be a very successful evening.

Glen-Coa Cleanings

Due to impassable roads, Sharon Church service could not be held on April 25th as planned. Also the Ladies' Aid meeting at Mrs. T. Larson's has been postponed from April 29th to a later date, with the fervent hope that roads will be much improved very soon.

University students from our community should be home by now. They are, Miss Arlene Stefensen, Curtis Satre and Lawrence Likness. Lawrence is going to try a different type of work at the Viking Creamery, beginning May 1st.

Mr. L. Girard is to take over school duties at Coal Springs for May and June.

Ralph Erickson has arrived from Washington to take over his father's farm (E. R. Erickson) in Coal Springs district.

We are inclined to groan (and that inaudibly) when we view our devastated roads, made impassable by running water and wash-outs. However, we are not homeless, even though some of us are isolated, and when we listen to radio reports of conditions elsewhere, we can be very thankful we are situated just where we are.

Mr. Isaac Lindquist is an Edmonton visitor this week attending the graduation of his cousin, Winnie Jacobs, as a nurse.

Northern Nuggets

The Buffalo Coulee W.L. Bazaar has been postponed until May 17th when it will then be held, weather permitting.

David Barras has returned to his home here having completed his first year at the University of Alberta.

Mrs. Dick McRoberts and baby son arrived home on Saturday last. We are sorry to report that Clara Lou Larson is on the sick list these days. We wish her a speedy recovery.

It looked for awhile last week as though our village was going to be a seaside resort and with the sea not exactly at one side, The residences of L. A. Johnson and Bert Kennedy are almost surrounded with water but the tide is beginning to go down at time of writing. All manner of detours are necessary for those wishing to use the country roads and all old timers agree that they can never remember quite so much water around on any previous spring. Conservation of Wild Life

THE APPROACH OF SPRING, the breaking up of rivers, the coming of pussy willows, the appearance across the skies of wild bird life in formation to nesting grounds of the North, and the song bird in the trees, is the one time that man's attention is drawn to the beauties of Nature more than at any season of the year. In speaking of Nature's beauty, the Prairies have been blessed with some of the prettiest bird and animal life that can be seen the world over, and the importation of the beautiful English or ring-necked pheasant, which has adopted the Prairies as its nesting grounds and have thrived in great numbers, has added to its beauty.

National Wild Life Week

The recent observing of the Canadian National Wild Life Week, with its motto of conservation of Canada's wild life, should have a very significant value to us of the Prairies, as the Western Canadian prairies has been the haven of hunters for many years, and special care should be taken that we do not destroy the beauties that we have been so favored with. In an article, "Jack Miner's Philosophy" written by Margaret Wade, forcibly gave the ideals of Canada's great naturalist, in his theory that "it was left to man to control and balance Nature." It stated that the late Jack Miner was often heard to say from lecture platforms: "Man is Nature's first assistant, or God's viceroy," and in his books and newspaper articles always he would write: "God put the birds and animals here for man's use and control."

What Happened The Ducks?

Jack Miner had received many letters in his lifetime, asking, "What happened the ducks?" Everybody pointed his finger at the gun as the sole cause of their disappearance, but it was Jack Miner's habit to state that seventy-five per cent. of the eggs laid by ducks never matured to adult birds, they being destroyed by crows, skunks, magpies and wrens. He knew whereof he spoke because back in the late twenties Jack Miner crossed Western Canada seven times and saw what was happening. Crows, for instance, were so numerous that they were nesting on telegraph lines. Had these destroyers been reduced by the hunters in the same proportion as the hunters were reducing the duck population, men would not now be asking, "what happened to the ducks?"

Papyrus, developed in Egypt, was the world's cheap and abundant writing paper.

Dominion To Spend Millions On Canada's Western Parks

Expenditure Is Part Of Government's Over-All Plan To Encourage Tourists To Come To This Country

OTTAWA.—The Dominion government is going to spend a total of more than $5,482,000 in Canada's western parks during the fiscal year 1948-49.

This expenditure, the bulk of the $7,372,000 which is being spent on all national parks during the year, is part of the government's over-all plan to encourage tourists to come to this country and spend their United States dollars.

The largest amount to be spent on any one park is the sum of $2,308,000 on Jasper National Park. Here the government plans to create a great recreational centre in Jasper town-site which will be provided with a swimming pool and other recreational facilities such as tennis courts, bowling greens, and eventually skating and curling facilities.

In addition two new campsites will be established at the junction of the Maligne and Athabasca rivers and at Pocatons in Jasper Park. Six major road projects in Jasper are to be proceeded with.

At Banff National Park a total of $656,650 is being spent where extensive work is planned for the Tunnel Mountain Camp ground. Here it is proposed to remodel 30 buildings acquired from the department of national defence and make them available for public use. An area set aside for auto trailers will be extended and equipped with kitchen and dining shelters.

In Elk Island Park a total of $168,000 is to be spent, while Waterton Lakes National Park is to get $416,000. The sum of $25,000 will go towards improving Glacier Park.

The department is proceeding with work at Riding Mountain National Park in Manitoba where it will spend $487,000 and at Prince Albert Park, Saskatchewan, where it will spend $389,300.

In British Columbia $206,000 will be spent in Yoho National Park, $687,000 in Kootenay Park and $37,000 in Mount Revelstoke National Park.

In addition the department is spending $128,000 for head office, $81,600 for parks and resources information and $167,000 for national historic sites and landscaping work generally.

Vast Salt Basin Indicated In Sask.
VANCOUVER.—Discovery of potash beds in Saskatchewan points to the presence of a vast salt basin potentially of great importance to the entire dominion, L. Heber Cole, federal department of mines engineer, said.

He told the jubilee convention of the Canadian Institute of Mining & Metallurgy that the basin runs in a westerly direction from a point near the United States boundary south of Regina to Waterways, and north.

He stressed the prime importance to national economy of an abundant and cheap supply of potash fertilizer—particularly essential to agriculture and certain chemical industries.

"Heavy investment is to be made to develop these beds of Canada's first important potash deposits," he declared.
